

Disclaimer for Parents about use of Zoom during Live Lessons

Dear Parents/Carers,

In order to safeguard and protect everyone (children, parents and staff) who take part in the Live Lessons on Zoom please complete the following disclaimer.

Failure to complete the disclaimer could result in you not having access to the live lessons and a breach in GDPR protocols.

Please tick to agree	I will ensure that:
	My child’s name is entered correctly in the Zoom profile before starting the session.
	An adult will be nearby when the live lesson takes place but the adult is not expected to directly take part in the lesson
	My child is not disturbed by anyone else during the live lesson
	My child and anyone else supervising the lesson wears appropriate clothing
	During the live lesson my child is sat in an appropriate location (not a bedroom)
	My child keeps the video camera switched on throughout the lesson
	Appropriate language is used at all times
	The session IDs and passcodes are not shared with anyone.
	No session or part of the session is recorded at home
	Photographs of the screen/screenshots/screengrabs are not taken during the lesson
	I understand that failure to adhere to the above statements will result in my child not having access to the live lessons and that I will be in breach of GDPR protocols

Please note:

Expectations of children’s behaviour are the same as those for a school lesson. Fairfields Primary School staff are authorised to remove any child from a session who is not meeting the behaviour standards set out by the school.
